

The path towards accountability for international crimes in Syria

Zoom roundtable discussion Thursday 16 December 2021 3.30 p.m. CET

The purpose of the roundtable is to take stock of the developments concerning accountability for international crimes in Syria. The discussion will cover the methodology and practice of fact-finding mechanisms in Syria and their relevance for future prosecution, the role of targeted sanctions against the use of chemical weapons, and the challenges of universal jurisdiction as a path for justice in Syria.

E' prevista una traduzione simultanea in lingua italiana.

chair

Marco Pedrazzi University of Milan

introduction

Mirko Sossai Roma Tre University

speakers

Santiago Oñate Laborde Coordinator of the OPCW Investigation and Identification Team

Clara Portela University of Valencia

Marina Mancini

Mediterranean University of Reggio Calabria

Grazia Careccia

IHL Desk Manager – Senior Legal Expert, Diakonia

conclusion

Alessandra Annoni University of Ferrara

with the support of

Diritto internazionale
e conflitti armati

Event Registration:
<https://macrocrimes.eventbrite.it/>