

Università degli Studi di Ferrara
Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza

Dottorato di ricerca in Diritto dell'Unione Europea
e ordinamenti nazionali

Martedì 21 aprile, ore 17 (aula 6)

Dr. Denise Amram
(Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna)

CURRENT DEBATES ON FAMILY LAW REFORMS IN EUROPE

The seminar illustrates the most recent European debates concerning family relationships and children's protection, including the new Italian, French and Irish reforms aimed at pursuing the best interest of the child within non-traditional families.

Denise Amram is a postdoc researcher at Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna (Pisa). She enriched her experience in Comparative Family Law and European Family Law undertaking research both in Italy and abroad, including France (Université Panthéon-Assas and Université Panthéon-Sorbonne), The Netherlands (Utrecht University), Ireland (University College Dublin) and USA (Columbia University and Harvard Law School). She authored and co-authored several publications in Italian, French, English, and Spanish, including two co-editions.